

Chris Bresette is an audit manager with the United States Department of Health and Human Services (OIG) Office of Inspector General. In this capacity, Chris directs the efforts of senior auditors and staff auditors of completing the agency's mission: to detect and prevent fraud waste and abuse in the HHS programs. Chris has had extensive experience in performing audits of the Medicare managed care program as well as conducting reviews of various Medicaid areas.

Chris joined the Office of Inspector General in 1990 and was promoted to a senior auditor in 1997 and to an audit manager in 2003. He has won numerous awards including the Inspector General's Bronze Award for the outstanding auditor of the year in 2000. Chris is also a CPA licensed in the state of Missouri.

Chris is a graduate of Rockhurst College with a BS in Accounting.