

Biographical Sketch –

James W. Brackens, Jr. Jim currently serves as Vice President – Firm Quality & Practice Monitoring of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants where he provides strategic and tactical direction for the AICPA’s peer review programs and the Employee Benefit Plan and Governmental Audit Quality Centers. Prior to Joining the Institute in December, 2006, Jim was associated with both international and local public accounting firms, including running his own firm in Richmond for seventeen years where he served closely-held businesses and not-for-profit organizations and performed over 300 peer reviews. He is a member of the AICPA and the Virginia and North Carolina Societies of CPAs, and is licensed in Virginia and North Carolina. Jim has served in various volunteer leadership positions for both the AICPA and VSCPA, including Peer Review Committee Chair and Vice-Chair and member of the Board of Directors of the Virginia Society and as a member of the AICPA’s Professional Ethics Executive Committee. He is a frequent presenter at accounting and auditing conferences and authored the VSCPA’s CPE course, Ethics: Your License Depends on It!, from 2004 through 2006. Jim received his Bachelors Degree in Accounting from Virginia Tech.